First Savings Bank Educates on Phishing Scams

First Savings Bank in Indiana, committed to protecting its customers from fraud, prioritized educating consumers on how to fight fraud. Throughout the month of October, they participated in ABA's #BanksNeverAskThat anti-phishing campaign to do just that. They used space on their website homepage

Join Us in Fighting Fraud

Every day, thousands of people fall victim to fraud and identity theft. Banks are working to protect your money and your identity. But there are some things that banks never ask for. If you see or hear anything suspicious, please report it to your bank. We want to change that by saving customers money and protecting their identity. What's your story? Do you see or hear anything suspicious? Can you report it to your bank? There are some things that banks never ask for.

to direct customers to BanksNeverAskThat.com to continue the conversation, and taught any and all visitors to their site how to identify and avoid phishing scams.
